

Assignment - 02

Profit and Loss Statement

Revenue from Operation :- It is known as sale or Survivor, represent, A Income generated by a Company from its core financial activities.

Other income :- Income generation from the company core business activities such as sale of products Interest or Dividend or Rent Income.

Cost of material Consumed :- The cost of new material or good used to produce the Company's Product

Excise duty :- A Tax on the Production or Sale of goods.

Purchase of stock in Trade :- The cost of buying goods or material for sale.

Change in Inventory :- The increase or decrease in the value of inventory holds the employee

Employee Benefit Expense :- The cost of employee
Salaries benefit and other component

Financial cost :- The cost of borrowing money including Interest and fee.

Depreciation and Amortization :- The cost of asset depreciation and amortization over the other expenses. Miscellaneous expenses not categorized elsewhere

Profit before tax :- The company Profit before income tax included.

Tax expense :- The amount of income tax paid by the company.

~~Profit after tax~~